EMPOWERING YOUNG AT RISK

Shiela was born into a very poor family and lost her parents when she was only ten. She had lived her whole life on the streets and railway platforms, and worked as a child labourer in a silk processing factory, where she had lost two of her fingers. Shiela was an aggressive, angry child, and you would have been too, if you had her life. Shiela was adopted by Don Bosco when she was ten, and her education was taken care of. She has passed 10th grade and a course in bridge building and is now pursuing ITI from Don Bosco, Prakashpalaya, where she is happy to learn and to earn for herself.

Shiela is among the over 45,000 children rehabilitated by Don Bosco, most of whom are from the streets, slums or have run away from their homes.

DB Young at Risk (YaR) forum, which has rehabilitated over 2,00,000 children, from the slums, rural communities. Till date, over 1.75,000 missing children have been rescued.

- 62000* girls per year being educated at present.
- 72 Cities: Centres for Young at Risk
- Movement for Child-Friendly Cities
- Migration to Integration: Help desks for migrant youth in cities
- Prevention of Girl Child marriages and rescue from sexual abuse
- Movements of Children's Parliaments and Child Rights Clubs

SKILLS FOR SUSTAINABLE LIVING

18 year old Vishal Ria from Kalimpong is the son of a labourer and a housewife. He had heard about the Skill Development training at Don Bosco Tech, which is especially for the underprivileged, provided in collaboration with the Ministry of Rural Development (Government of India). Vishal took up training in Sales & Marketing and found his first job in Tranistics Data Technologies Pvt. Ltd, Kolkata as a trainee. Now he works as an executive in the shipping invoice of the freight bill process of USA, earning a salary of Rs. 5,000/-

We at Don Bosco believe that when people learn skills, they earn not only their own living, but also respect - from both themselves and others!

The Government of India has recognised Don Bosco as the largest non-governmental provider of technical education in the country,

Towards this aim of empowering the less privileged with both skills and confidence, our Don Bosco career guidance and job placement centres offer:

- 120 DB technical institutes and over 400 skill training centres have skilled over 1 million youth. We have the mission to train 2.2 million youth in livelihood skills by the year 2020
- Skilling youth for agriculture, alternative clean energy sources

EMPOWERING WOMEN & FAMILY

After the sudden death of her husband, Sujatha, a domestic worker drawing minimum wage, took to selling vegetables door to door in the village, but earned herself only a minimum profit. Finally, Sujatha attended the entrepreneurship training at Chithra Don Bosco and it was this that motivated her to start a new business. Sujatha got a loan from a local bank and started a small restaurant by the road, alongside her vegetable sales. Sujatha worked hard and employed her training to grow her business to a thriving catering service. Sujata is now a happy, content, smart businesswoman with eight women employees - she can maintain accounts and even do bank transfers!

Don Bosco reaches out to underprivileged and neglected women across India, with the aim of ensuring for them social and financial development that is sustainable, in the following ways:

- Socio-economic upliftment of over 82,500 women through more than 8062 Self Help groups
- Over 1,50,000 women are empowered to leadership and participation in political decision making structures and financial literacy
- 35,000 women with set up with bank accounts to save and use their income profitably!
- Gender Equity Education program
